SCOTTY CAMERON

red.

RED X3™

The new Red X3 takes a classic mallet into another realm of performance and style. A solid face. New graphics. A new finish. And a single sight line to guide the way.

RED X5™

The new Red X5 features a plumbing neck to give the soft lines of the body a precise look at setup. With a glare-resistant Charcoal Mist finish and single sight line, players will love the look and feel.

The new Scotty Cameron® Red X3 and Red X5 mallets feature refined shapes with a new glare resistant Charcoal Mist finish for unmatched looks and feel. Both models are precision milled from 303 Stainless Steel and finished with a black anodized aluminum soleplate with red graphics that conceals the precise internal weighting. The Red X3 features a classic, single bend shaft with 1/4 shaft of offset for the ideal toe-flow through the stroke. The Red X5 features a plumbing neck with a full shaft of offset for a precise, contemporary look.
